

Welcome to the first issue of the ReAttach Affect Coach Journal!

Dr. Paula Zeestraten-Bartholomeus, Director of ReAttach Academy, President of ReAttach Therapy International Foundation, Berg en Terblijt, The Netherlands, email: reattachfoundation@gmail.com

As the new Editor-in-Chief, it is my pleasure to introduce our new Academic Journal, which we dedicate to research and practice in ReAttach therapy and Affect Coaching. ReAttach Affect Coach Journal allows established and emerging researchers and practitioners to share their findings. We emphasize empirical findings and innovative methodologies illuminating the underlying processes and therapeutic outcomes associated with ReAttach therapy and Affect Coaching.

Although the heart of the ReAttach Affect Coach Journal lies in the commitment to support research in ReAttach, W.A.R.A. (Wiring Affect with ReAttach), and the New Mind Creation, this Journal has a broader scope. We welcome original articles in the fields of Clinical Psychology, Organizational Psychology, Special Education and Rehabilitation, Disability Studies, Pedagogy, Social Work, and Social Policy.

Let's collaborate in international research projects and nurture mentorship opportunities. Don't hesitate to contact ReAttach Therapy International Foundation if you are interested in initiating research projects or in participating in ReAttach training.

Without wanting to elaborate too long, I want to express my gratitude. First and foremost, I would like to express my gratitude to the ReAttach Therapy International Foundation, the publisher of this journal.

Secondly I would like to thank the passionate members of our Editorial Board, for their guidance, expertise, and dedication. Collaborating with such esteemed professionals has been an honor, and your contributions are deeply appreciated.

Of course I would like to thank our concise peer reviewers. Your selfless support helps us to maintain the high standards we set for ourselves.

Finally, I want to thank all ReAttach practitioners, Affect Coaches and other professionals who submitted their work or participated in research projects. I look forward to our continued collaboration.

Let us celebrate this new journal and explore what we can achieve together, each of you playing a vital role in our shared vision. Here's to an inspiring beginning of an academic publishing journey and to the many impactful contributions in ReAttach Affect Coach Journal that await in the times to come.
