

Appendix Survey

1. Do you read daily horoscopes?

Yes

Sometimes

Rarely

Never

2. Age (Short answer text)

3. Gender

Female

Male

Prefer not to say

Other

4. When do you usually read your horoscope?

Before starting my day (morning)

After the day has ended (evening/night)

5. Belief in horoscopes (Indicate your level of agreement with each statement based on your general experience using the Likert scale, where 1 = strongly disagree and 5 = strongly agree)

I believe horoscopes can be accurate

Horoscopes reflect real-life situations

I trust horoscope predictions

Horoscopes are meaningful to me

6. Expectation (Indicate your level of agreement with each statement based on your general experience using the Likert scale, where 1 = strongly disagree and 5 = strongly agree)

Reading my horoscope influences how I expect my day to go

I look for situations that match my horoscope

My expectations are shaped by my horoscope

I pay attention to events that confirm my horoscope

7. Behavior (Indicate your level of agreement with each statement based on your general experience using the Likert scale, where 1 = strongly disagree and 5 = strongly agree)

My horoscope influences my decisions during the day

I behave differently based on my horoscope

I approach or avoid situations because of my horoscope

I think about my horoscope while acting

8. Reinterpretation (Indicate your level of agreement with each statement based on your general experience using the Likert scale, where 1 = strongly disagree and 5 = strongly agree)

I can usually find ways my horoscope matches my day

I reinterpret events to fit my horoscope

Even small or unrelated events can confirm my horoscope

If my horoscope seems inaccurate, I rethink my day to make it fit

9. Intolerance of uncertainty (Indicate your level of agreement with each statement based on your general experience using the Likert scale, where 1 = strongly disagree and 5 = strongly agree)

I prefer to know what will happen in advance

Uncertainty about the future makes me uncomfortable

I always want to know what the future has in store for me

Not knowing what will happen next bothers me

I find uncertainty stressful